
Friends of IPR – Cedar Falls/Waterloo (VERSION 1)

Objective

- Foster dialogue and engagement with community leaders, influencers and donors
- Act as informed ambassadors for the IPR mission through informal, educational programs and events for our most generous investors
- Raise funds for the mission and programs of IPR

Purpose Statement

The Friends of IPR provides the volunteer leadership essential to ensure IPR's continued excellence in producing the highest quality news, information, classical and alternative music programming that enhances the lives and expands perspectives for all Iowans. The Friends of IPR members are community leaders from across the state, all of whom are committed to building a sound future for IPR. The Friends will raise awareness for IPR by inviting other community leaders to join the group, provide volunteer leadership for fundraising events and provide counsel to IPR development officers for prospect identification and other fundraising opportunities.

Members

The Friends of IPR members are enthusiastic and committed supporters through time, talent or gifts demonstrating local community engagement as well as support of statewide network initiatives.

Benefits

The Friends of IPR offers members an opportunity to become actively involved in the ongoing success of the organization. Distinctive educational and social activities include:

- Volunteer leadership opportunities for fundraising events
- Expanded opportunity to engage with IPR personalities, senior leadership and its board of directors
- Preferred status as a listener group for future focus groups
- Special recognition of their leadership role in IPR's annual report and VIP stakeholder newsletters
